Boys' & Girls Junior Varsity	5:40 p.m. (they will be run together – no stagger)

Awards – Following the completion of the Junior Varsity Race

Trophies - Top Team in each Varsity Race

Medals – Top 5 Finishers in each Varsity Race
Top 5 Finishers in each Class for Varsity Race
Top 5 Finishers in each Junior Varsity Race
Top 5 Finishers in each Middle School Race (handed out in the chute)

Participating Schools: Brillion, Gibraltar, Hilbert, Hortonville, Howards Grove, Manitowoc Lincoln Oostburg, St. Mary's Catholic (SMC), Valders, Wrightstown

Middle Schools: Brillion, Gibraltar, Hilbert, Hortonville, Mishicot, Oostburg, St. Mary's of Greenville, Valders

Entry Fee: $125 for each high school and $25 for any middle school team not attached to a high school

Course: The course will start and finish at the high school and continue to the back of Ariens property. From there, the course follows a pea-gravel trail. This is a very spike friendly course. There is very little looping, this is good for the runners, but difficult for the fans to see a lot of the course.

Spikes: Spikes are allowed on the course. Please remind your runners to not wear their spikes inside the building.

Facilities: Bathrooms, locker rooms, vending machines, are all located inside of Brillion High School.

Concession: Concessions will be sold inside the school.

T-shirts: Brillion Invitational T-shirts will be sold.

Games

Committee: WIAA Starter, Meet Manager, Girls Coach from Howards Grove, and Boys Coach from Hilbert

Scoring: We will be using P.T. Timing to score the meet – for all races, which includes the middle school.

Entries: All entries must be received by Noon on Monday, October 7th. All entries are to be completed on-line though P.T. Timing at www.pttiming.com. You are allowed (8) runners for varsity and unlimited runners for the JV race and Middle School. Late entries will be charged $50 through PT Timing.
